

Corin Grillo, Awakening Our Spiritual Gifts and Discovering Our True Purpose By Working With Angels and the Divine - Episode 290

In this Episode:

- Corin shares the miracle that she needs to share with other people
- How she broke through a lot of walls so the spirit can communicate with her
- Her journey of trusting herself and the angels to get her back
- What happened during one of her therapy sessions when messages were coming through all of a sudden or when she felt like the angels wanted to talk to the person
- The moment she decided to let go of her private practice and start working internationally and going online
- Why she has always been logical and strategic about her intuition
- Her belief that angels are messengers and that they have been around longer than when people created a religion and the belief system
- People's false paradox between money and spirituality
- She talks about wealth blockers
- Activating and awakening that life force within you through invocation
- Why channel writing is so powerful and magical
- She describes her wealth altar and how it changes all the time with her mood
- She talks about her book Angel Wealth Magic

Notable Quotes:

“The only way to really learn how to trust is to jump, to take really big risks and to see what happens.”

“That's why 90% of us are not doing great, because we haven't had the opportunity to take the other voice seriously.”

“You need also to be able to invest and fund that idea, that dream.”

“We can just be who we are and be supported in who we are. And if we know what our heart center dream is, spirit can really support us with that.”

“And money specifically is just an avenue for us to survive and thrive. And Spirit has always helped us with those things.”

“Spirit is always inviting us to do our work.”

“Wealth blockers are those other conscious beliefs that we have about money and also unconscious beliefs that we have about ourselves and our abilities, our capabilities.”

“Curiosity is what keeps us in our original mind.”

“Trust is built from action, not from sitting around and thinking.”

“Attract wealth based on your joy and your pleasure”

Pearls of Wisdom:

1. Lead with joy and pleasure.
2. Receive, be open. Receive inspiration. And sometimes your inspiration doesn't come right in that moment. Just ask for it.
3. Ask the angels to help you ignite your passion. It's not your age that makes you not feel passionate, it's life that has crusted over life.
