

Kami Guildner, A New Paradigm of Entrepreneurship - Episode 300

In this Episode:

- Kami talks about the different journeys we've had during the pandemic and how it shifted the way we run our business and how we live our lives
- How listening to our soul wisdom brings choices, simplification, and new strategies
- Why women are getting laser focused on a single client journey with a very simplified scope of products serving to help that client
- The importance of collaboration over competition
- How visibility strategies changed
- Why we can't outsource our leadership of thought
- That self-care is a new learned skill set for all of the women

Notable Quotes:

"Shift from scarcity focused marketing practices to more abundant, uplifting marketing messages."

"The importance of coming home to ourselves shapes the future of this new paradigm."

"Women's wisdom is leading the change."

"The businesses that are thriving are the ones with the strong vision."

"Do the work to find clarity in how you want to make a difference."

"Prioritizing self-care is important, I prioritize me first so that I can show up as the best at serving my clients."
