Riding Into the Fire Horse Year: A New Season of Possibility
With Kami Guildner - Episode 426

In this Episode:

- Kami explores the insights gathered from a year-long listening campaign with established women entrepreneurs and how those conversations revealed what is shaping business growth, leadership, and visibility in 2026.
- Why 2025 became a year of recalibration for many women in business, marked by simplifying offers, refining focus, and choosing meaningful growth over constant noise and pressure.
- How relationship-driven marketing, trust, referrals, and warm visibility are becoming the primary drivers of sustainable revenue and aligned client attraction.
- The shift away from hustle and algorithm chasing toward building businesses rooted in connection, integrity, and long-term trust.
- The concept of the feminization of time and how women entrepreneurs are redefining productivity by prioritizing energy, capacity, nervous system health, and spaciousness as strategic assets.
- Reflective prompts designed to help you identify what is rising in your business, where you are ready to be seen, and what form of prosperity and leadership you are ready to claim next.

Notable Quotes:

“Simplicity wasn’t just a desire. It was a strategy.”

“My clients come from trust, not traffic.”

“Women are no longer trying to be everywhere. They are choosing to be in the right rooms.”
